

Sujatha Hariharan, MD

Sujatha Hariharan, MD grew up in Houston, TX and pursued her love of medicine by training at prestigious institutions around the world.

Upon completion of her Fellowship in June 2006, Dr. Hariharan joined the cancer care team of Northwest Georgia Oncology Centers, P.C. (NGOC). With a special interest in treating gastrointestinal cancers, Dr. Hariharan is actively involved in cancer research and clinical trials to find a cancer cure and provide her patients with the most advanced cancer treatment available in Georgia.

“The treatment for colorectal cancer has changed considerably in the last 10 years due to translational research and patient participation. I believe patients derive great satisfaction from being involved in clinical trials since they are not only helping themselves, but patients fighting colorectal cancer in the years to come.”

Dr. Hariharan provides patient-centered cancer care at NGOC’s Austell Cancer Center.
