"I focus on a patient's overall well-being because cancer affects many aspects of a patient's life, not just their physical health. It's important to address the patient's emotional, spiritual and social needs as well as the underlying cancer. Loving Arms Cancer Outreach, one of the supportive care services NGOC offers, is instrumental in helping our practice address many of these needs."

Dr. Long provides patient-centered cancer care at NGOC's Paulding Center Center.
